

Mrs. A. H. Kraft's Studio Tea, Given To Honor Mrs. Laird, Smart Affair

By OLLIE P. LANDSEN.

ONE of the smartest of the season's social affairs was the studio tea given in the late hours of Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Alfred H. Kraft at her suite in the Shurwood Hotel in honor of her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Laird, of New York City, who is to be Mrs. Kraft's guest for several weeks.

The color effect of the Kraft apartments is rose, hazy and delicate, draperies and rugs reflecting the tint in artistic selection. Mrs. Kraft chose American Beauty roses, rose tinted carnations and Shasta daisies for the flowers of decoration. The blossoms were held in the most exquisite old silver and copper vases and jars of pottery picked up in foreign travel.

Mrs. Kraft and her sister greeted the guests in the reception room. Both were dressed in creations of black and white. Mrs. Laird's gown was of black satin and chiffon embroidered with pearls and her jewelry was diamonds and turquoise. An especially beautiful piece of jewelry being her collar of old gold and turquoise linked. Mrs. Kraft wore a stunning white satin Lodelle model, overdressed with black chiffon embroidered with pearls. She wore diamonds.

In the dining room a pretty boy of girls of the younger set, Misses Caroline Plumb, Eliza Shobell, Margaret Hirt and Alberta Kahn, assisted with the service of punch and lemon. Each girl was a picture in frock of dainty flower tint.

The table from which the refreshments were dispensed was a mahogany hutch, having been used in the home of Mrs. Kraft's family for generations. In the center of the table was placed an old silver centerpiece bearing the family crest and surrounded with roses and lilies. It was small silver vases of daisies and carnations interspersed with silver.

Mrs. Nelson Hemman Gives Dinner Complimenting Miss Myra Jackson

ANOTHER very lovely courtesy for Miss Myra Jackson, who is here from her home in Albuquerque, N. M., for a visit to Miss Lydia Hill, was the dinner for her on Saturday evening, when Mrs. Nelson Hemman was hostess at the Hamman home, on Capper street.

The reception rooms were abloom with roses and the table for the service was centered with an ivory lace cloth, with American Beauty roses. Other appointments featured the rose motif, the cut cups being designed as rosebuds, and pink candles were shaded with rose.

Pretty rose place cards marked covers for Miss Jackson, Miss Hill, Capt. Julian Cunningham and Lieut. Henri Hesse, of the Seventh Cavalry, Oakland, and the hostess. After the dinner service, the guests enjoyed the remainder of the evening dancing at the roof garden of Hotel Paso del Norte.

Old southern traditions and customs made picturesque the alfresco party and buffet dinner given on Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Ryan and their niece, Miss Anne Selman MacGillivray, of the Eighth Cavalry. The hosts greeted their guests on the lawn and an alfresco South Carolina game, "Cricket," was played until the dinner service, which took place in the dining room. The entire remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and the table in the dining room, shaped in replica of a horseshoe in courtesy to the party, was decorated with tall silver.

Mrs. Von Rhein Hostess At Musical Honoring Mrs. Frances G. Russell

MRS. J. E. VON RHEIN was hostess at an informal musical of delightful arrangement on Sunday afternoon in compliment Mrs. Frances Russell, wife of Capt. O. A. Russell, herself a musician of note possessing a beautiful soprano voice.

The guests were being served the courtesy in Mrs. Russell, who is a material addition to the musical circle of the city. Mrs. J. J. Kaefer, Mrs. Charles Andrews and Mrs. Russell sang during the afternoon, while Mrs. Ralph Henderson played a group of selections on violin. Mrs. William R. Brown was accompanist at the piano for the song numbers.

Those present were Mrs. Russell, Capt. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Brown, Mrs. Charles Andrews, Mrs. J. J. Kaefer, Capt. and Mrs. Myers, Mrs. G. E. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Derry and Mrs. Henderson.

Outings.

A party of El Pasoans motored down the valley on Sunday and enjoyed an outing with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Critchett. The party left the Critchett home at 4 o'clock and upon arrival at a grove of trees further down the valley, a picnic supper was spread and watermelon served. Later they returned to the Critchett home, where the evening was spent in dancing. Those in the party were Albert Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Harbert, Kenneth Faw, Walter O'Brien, Mr. Zyla, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Davis and J. T. Bradshaw, of Miami, Ariz.

PUBLISH MY LETTER

Says Mrs. Orenstein, So Other Suffering Women May Learn How to Get Well.

Chicago, Ill.—I suffered for four years with pain in my side, hips and legs and a terrible backache. I could not do any work at all. I was treated by many physicians, but they did not help me. I read in one of your books where other women had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and it helped me very much so that now I can do everything in the house. I have told my friends about your wonderful Vegetable Compound and you have my permission to publish my letter as other women who suffer may learn how to get well. Mrs. Ida Orenstein, 902 S. Marshall Ave., Chicago, Ill.

This good old fashioned remedy is made from native roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
